

Vermont Household Health Insurance Survey

House Health Care Committee
February 9, 2016

Tracy Dolan, Deputy Commissioner
Rich McCoy, Public Health Statistics Chief

-
- VHHIS measures the health insurance coverage status of Vermont residents
  - Responsibility for conducting survey moved from DFR to VDH.

Schedule and Cost

Vermont Household Health Insurance Survey

Survey Year	Data Collection	Received Report	Cost of Contract
2005	November 2005 – February 2006	August 2006	$350,191
2008/2009*	2008: September – December 2008 2009: August – November 2009	2008: July 2009 2009: January 2010	$509,419
2012	August – December 2012	March 2013	Up to $349,722
2014	August – December 2014	March 2015	Up to $300,000

Comparison of cost information for similar survey such as the Vermont Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System

Survey Year	Cost of Contract
2006	$246,927
2007	$242,016
2008	$249,900
2009	$285,506
2010	$306,092
2011	$293,631
2012	$278,242
2013	$346,628
2014	$319,479
2015	$312,997

Estimated cost

2017 Vermont Household Health Insurance Survey

Data Collection Contract $230,000 - $250,000

Staffing $100,000

Total $330,000 - $350,000

Anticipated Schedule

- Vermont Department of Health anticipates data collection for next survey to take place in 2017
- Lead time allows us to adjust workloads of current staff , review scope of work, conduct competitive bid process